PLAINTIFF'S MOTION TO COMPEL DISCOVERY

Now comes the plaintiff, Rizzari Construction, pursuant to Fed.R.Civ.P. Rule 37, for an Order compelling the defendant, Granite Industrial Gasses Inc, and Todd Miller, individually to produce all answers and documents responsive to produce plaintiff's first request for production of documents and plaintiff's first and second sets of interrogatories propounded to the defendant. As grounds for this motion, Rizzari Construction states the following:

1. On March 13, 2006, by and through their counsel, plaintiff Rizzari Construction served upon defendants Granite Industrial Gases Inc., and Todd Miller, individually Plaintiff's First Request for Production of Documents and Things.
2. On March 13, 2006 and December 13, 2006, by and through their counsel, plaintiff Rizzari Construction served upon the defendants Granite Industrial Gases Inc., and Todd Miller, individually Plaintiff's First and Second Sets of Interrogatories.
3. Pursuant to Fed.R.Civ.P. Rule 34, the plaintiff had thirty (30) days to file its answers and objections to the documents and requests.
4. To date, the defendant has not produced any documents or any answers in response to Rizzari Construction's requests.
5. Plaintiff has discussed defendant's failure to answer with defense counsel on several occasions but no responses have been forthcoming.

WHEREFORE, Rizzari Construction respectfully requests that this Honorable Court enter an Order:

- A. compelling the defendant to respond to the plaintiff's first request for production of documents and things;
- B. compelling the defendant to respond to the plaintiff's first and seconds sets of interrogatories propounded to the defendant;
- C. awarding Rizzari Construction all reasonable expenses, including attorney's fees, incurred in bringing this motion; and
- D. granting such other and further relief as Rizzari Construction may be able to demonstrate it is entitled to.

Respectfully Submitted,
Rizzari Construction,
By Its Attorney:
